Before BOWMAN, MAGILL, and LOKEN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Shepards alleged that the correctional officers retaliated against George for filing grievances by refusing to let Karan use padded chairs during visits and by denying visitation on occasions when Karan did not wear a brassiere. The Shepards also alleged that the supervisory officials condoned the correctional officers' actions by denying George's grievances.

Following our de novo review, see Yowell v. Combs, 89 F.3d 542, 544 (8th Cir. 1996) (standard of review), we find that summary judgment was proper. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.

Accordingly, we affirm the judgment of the district court.
